Holiday Outdoor Antiques & Farmers Markets

Temperatures in the 90s did not deter shoppers who explored the variety of antiques and collectibles assembled at the Memorial Day Antiques and Farmers Market in Scotts Corners sponsored by the Pound Ridge Business Association. Adding to the goods displayed by over 40 dealers from near and far was the merchandise found in Scotts Corners shops open for the day, including Antiques & Interiors, Antiques & Tools of Business & Kitchen, Eileen Godfrey Miniatures, Kathy's Dolls, Penny Whistle Toys and The Gift Garage.

PRBA Show Manager Sandra Lena expects many of these dealers, as well as several newcomers, to return for the PRBA Labor Day Antiques and Farmers Market on Monday, September 4th. 764-3147

Antiques & Tools will sponsor the 4th of July Antiques and Farmers Market on Tuesday, July 4th, in addition to a special Holiday Market that day, which will bring dealers to the area outside the shop. Proprietor Joan Silbersher anticipates that several Scotts Corners shops will be open that Tuesday as well. 764-5122

Looking for a way to get your MOJO back?

Pilates Pound Ridge is your road to vitality. It is a welcoming studio for new and experienced pupils of Pilates. Anna DiPace-Zullo, owner-operator, instructs people of all ages and fitness levels. With her keen eye, she will work you to your personal best. Classical Pilates, as Anna instructs, can strengthen and stretch you out at the same time, as well as align you, so your body is in balance. It focuses on strengthening your deep core muscles, and in doing so has been shown to relieve back pain and open up the body, giving one a more youthful posture.

Anna has worked successfully with many prenatal and postnatal women, keeping them healthy and in shape. New mothers and mothers of young children can regain and improve pre-pregnancy strength and measurements. She has a Fit Mom program scheduled for this summer that includes Pilates classes packaged together with sessions from distinguished nutritionist Gayle Mazlish and Swedish Institute professor and massage therapist Susan Ward.

Sport-specific sessions are great for tennis and golf. Many players have found Pilates has improved their games. By strengthening your deepest muscles, you will have a more powerful swing and stroke, since all your power is coming from your core twisting motion. Obtaining a more flexible spine can strengthen the tennis serve.

Pilates Pound Ridge has state-of-the-art apparatus and offers privates, duets, trios and the following classes: Postnatal Pilates where babies are welcome(!), Classic Power Mat, Pilates boot camp on the ball, and Pilates for low-back care. As always, privates, duets and trios are available utilizing the reformer, Cadillac, ladder barrel and wonder chair.

A lot is going on and you have an opportunity to make this summer a trim and healthy one. Remember, if you keep doing what you've always done, you're going to get what you've always gotten.

For more information and/or brochures, call the studio at 917-841-1218 or email: pilatespoundridge@yahoo.com

ALL YOUR YESTERDAYS Country Antiques and Collectibles

All Your Yesterdays, specializing in country antiques and collectibles, is located at 74 Westchester Avenue. For the past 20 years, owners Robert and Vida Barbo have dreamed of opening an antiques store. With the opening in March of All Your Yesterdays, their wish has finally been granted. A former educator and practicing psychologist, Robert has decades of experience selling antiques at top shows throughout New York. Vida's father was also a collector and she acquired her respect and knowledge of antiques from him.

Prior to opening their shop, the Barbos spent every spare moment (and countless weekends, holidays and vacations) collecting antiques. They sold these acquisitions at numerous shows throughout New York and Connecticut, including the annual Chappaqua Antiques Show, Ridgefield Antiques Market, at events in New Canaan and at Lyndhurst in Tarrytown. Through these experiences, their knowledge of the business and understanding of the tastes of their customers continued to expand. And their desire to open an antiques store in Northern Westchester grew even stronger.

"When we saw the space in Scotts Corners, we knew immediately it was the perfect location for our business," says Robert. "The residents of this community have always made us feel welcome and we look forward to a long and successful relationship here." 764-3063

2nd Sunday Markets plus a special Holiday Market at Antiques & Tools

Sales at Antiques & Tools of Business & Kitchen's 2nd Sunday Market in May included a ca. 1900 butcher's cleaver, ivory salt and pepper set, 1940s lady's watch, a box of autographed books. John Ubaldo's Farm Stand offered eggs, quiches and other baked goods. Proprietor Joan Silbersher provided her usual wood-fired barbecue for free toasted marshmallows.

In conjunction with the 4th of July Antiques and Farmers Market also sponsored by Antiques & Tools, a special Holiday Market will also fill the area around the shop.
